

FRANCE RAIL PASS

France Rail Pass is the best way to discover France for non European residents. Visit Paris, Nice, Lyon and any other city that you like, your journey is only limited by your imagination and desire to see what France has to offer.

The France pass allows between 3 to 9 days of first or second class travel within a 1 month period. If you are under 26 years old on your first day of travel, you qualify for the France Youth pass, which offers a great value for travel days in France. Travelers over 60 years of age and older qualify for the senior France rail pass.

- Unlimited train travel on all domestic trains (TGV, TEOZ, TER, Intercités, Lunéa)
- From 3 to 9 days of unlimited travel within one month
- Valid either in 1st class or 2nd class
- Valid for adults and children between 4 and 11(children pay for 50% of the adult fare, free for children under 4)
- Discounts on international trains (Eurostar, Thalys, Lyria, Elispos,...)
- Discount among a large number of partners (restaurants, hotels...)
- Travel days may be used consecutively or not
- Pass non transferable to another person

French Saver Pass:

The France Saver pass offers the same features as the France Rail pass but at a group discount. Available from 2 to 5 people travelling together at the same time. Saverpass requires a minimum of two people traveling together at all times. This is probably the best deal for you. The France
