

German Rail Pass

This special offer from DB Bahn enables visitors to travel on all scheduled trains operated by DB Bahn for between 3 and 10 days within a four week period, high-speed ICE trains included. The German Rail Pass is available for both first and second class. For a party of two, the German Rail Twin Pass is the most economical way to travel. The German Rail Youth Pass is also available at a discounted rate for those who are eligible.

Your German Rail Pass is valid on all trains within Germany operated by Deutsche Bahn (DB). You can also travel to the border stations Basel Badischer Bahnhof (Switzerland) and Salzburg (Austria).

ELIGIBILITY

This offer only applies for people with permanent residence outside Europe, Turkey and the Russian Federation. If you are European and live outside Europe you must have left more than 6 months ago (the stamp in your passport is decisive).

SUPPLEMENTS AND RESERVATIONS

-  The German Rail Pass exempts the holder from paying a surcharge on German High Speed and Quality trains such as ICE (except ICE Sprinter trains with compulsory reservation and supplement for special on-board services), IC or EC.
-  Pass holders have free access to these trains, reservations are however recommended during peak times.
-  The German Rail Pass Offer is not valid on Metropolitan Trains, DB Urlaubs Express and DB AutoZug.
-  The pass holder must pay other charges and supplements, in particular those levied for:
 - * seat reservations (sometimes including services routinely offered and/or compulsory)
 - * the use of overnight accommodation, e.g. on DB NachtZug trains (sleeperettes, couchettes, berths)
 - * meals, which are included in the supplement of some trains
